pavilion here.

- Q Where is this pavilion? A It is right here at the end of my street. That is Reese Avenue.
- Q How many blocks north of Brown Avenue is that?
- A That is three blocks. And I was there from half-past six until after dark.
- Q Were you operating on Eastern Standard Time or Daylight Saving Time? A Daylight Saving Time.
- Q What did you see, if anything?
- A Well, I saw a lot of men fishing. I saw Henry Stevens fishing right there about in front of that street there at Wilbur's. That was Brown Avenue. I saw him fishing there. In fact, I saw men all along the beach fishing that day.
- Q How long were you there altogether?
- A I was there from half-past six to after dark, I judge about half-past seven. It was cooler there and I sat in this pavilion.
- Q Did you return home after that?
- A Then I went home. Along around half-past seven I went home and I laid down and got the ice bag and tried again to get this rupture back in there, and I could not do it. Then I realized that I was in a dangerous condition and I said to my wife that "I am going back to Philadel-
